First Generation

Both candidate baptisms for Peter name his father as Peter,
Child:

- 2 i. Peter Warburton (1768-1830)

Second Generation

2. Peter Warburton (*Peter*¹). Peter was born in 1768. Peter died in Liverpool, Lancashire, on 25 Oct 1830. He was buried in Liverpool, Holy Trinity, Lancashire, on 28 Oct 1830.

Peter died aged 62 on October 25th 1830. This puts his date of birth between October 26th 1767 and October 25th 1768. Two candidates are:

Peter the son of Peter of Burnhedge (probably Burnage, an area of Didsbury) was baptised on July 3rd 1768 at Northenden, St Wilfrid. However a Peter son of Peter of Withington was buried at Didsbury on February 24th 1769. I have not found an alternative baptism that could be this Peter.

Peter the son of Peter was born on October 16th 1768 and baptised on November 29th at Newhurch Kenyon, Culcheth. This follows the burial of a Peter son of Peter on September 7th 1768 (transcribed as 1767 in FindMyPast and confusing as the dates roll through 2 years under the heading 1767). An entry in FamilySearch applies these dates to the same Peter by moving his birth and baptism to 1767.

Peter appeared in Gore's Directory of Liverpool in 1825, 1827 and 1829 as a cowkeeper living at 11 King Street, Soho (no 13 in 1829). He was buried aged 62 of King Street, Soho. His date of death is from the Record of Removal of Graves and Tombstones which recorded the removal of the family grave (including wife Hannah and children Hannah, William and Elizabeth) on 14th September 1970.

On 12 Oct 1806 when Peter was 38, he married Hannah Mitchall in Liverpool, St John, Lancashire. Peter was a yeoman from Liverpool. Hannah was from the same parish. Hannah was born abt 1776.
