PREFACE

The earliest records of this family are from the parish registers of St Mary's, Bury in the mid 17th century, and the writings of John Warburton, yhe Somerset Herald and a member of the clan.

The family were located at Affetside, Tottington by 1717. Ann Cooper of Colorado documented the descendants of Richard Warburton (1717-97). Her tree was greatly extended with input from Christine Richie, as well as my own researches.

First Generation

1. Thomas Warburton.

Thomas is recorded as the father of John of Bank and Walsall, Bury in a pencilled addition to a pedigree by Sir Ralph Bigland. The addition includes the references HMSS 26-241 and RBG V11-288. This was possibly added in the mid-19th century as a result of a claim that his son John's father was George of the Lodge, and subsequently of Arley Hall.

Child:

- 2 i. John Warburton

Second Generation

2. John Warburton (*Thomas*¹).

John is identified as the father of Benjamin by the writings of Benjamin's son John, the Somerset Herald, who gave his father's dates. There is a matching baptism at Bury that gives Benjamin's father as John. The four other sons baptised around the same time are assumed to be Benjamin's brothers.

Ralph Bigland's pedigree lists John's children as:

1. George, eldest son who left a son Robert who had no issue. There is a Robert, son of George baptised at Bury on 12th January 1668/9, along with 2 daughters and an infant who died young.
2. John, second son, went to Ireland on account of his father's by Cromwell, being a great Royalist, and had issue there. There is no evidence of this John in Ireland.
3. Thomas, settled in Bradford, Yorkshire, and left several children resident there. A Thomas was buried in Bradford, St James on 24th March 1689 but has not been investigated further.
4. Joseph, Benjamin's twin.
5. Benjamin
6. Elizabeth
7. Margaret

The parish records identify sons Robert, Francis and Richard who are born to a John in the six years before Benjamin and Joseph appear. There is also an Elizabeth baptised in 1645, and a Margaret baptised in 1657. Information is very sparse. Francis's baptism record says his father was from Elton. Later Benjamin is living at Elton on the baptism and burial of his son Benjamin. Otherwise the only link between the baptisms is the date cluster, although there are two other contemporary clusters. The first is a sequence of records for a John in Tottington. The second is for a John in Stubbins/Holcombe that ties in with a known family in the Edenfield clan.

John would appear to be the John who family lore states had a large family and who were Royalists. Five of his sons had to flee Lancashire from Cromwell whilst John himself remained hidden in a cave for a considerable time whilst his wife remained home looking after the younger children. This would imply that Benjamin and Joseph were the youngest of a large family especially as the older sons were old enough to have to flee during the Civil War.

This is based on comments from John, the Somerset Herald in investigations into the unfounded claim that John was in fact the son of George Warburton of the Lodge, a second son of the Warburtons of Arley Hall.

John married Holt.

John's wife is recorded as the daughter of John Holt of Hollins Grove and Stubbley in various biographies though it was claimed there is no record of a Warburton in the records of the Holts of Stubley. Possibly she is from a lesser branch.

They had the following children:

- i. Elizabeth Warburton. Elizabeth was born in 1645. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 9 Mar 1645.

Elizabeth is only known from Sir Ralph Bigland's pedigree, according to which she married a Mr Heworth from Bury, Gentleman.

Elizabeth married Heworth.

- ii. Robert Warburton. Robert was born on 13 Jul 1647. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 18 Jul 1647.
- iii. Francis Warburton. Francis was born in Elton, Lancashire, on 19 Jan 1650. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 27 Jan 1650.

Francis's baptism record says his father was from Elton.

- iv. Richard Warburton. Richard was born on 17 Mar 1652. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 28 Mar 1652. Richard died on 11 Jun 1652. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 12 Jun 1652.

The burial record only says a child of John. It is presumed to be Richard as he was recently born.

- v. Benjamin Warburton (1653-1718)
 - vi. Joseph Warburton. Joseph was born on 2 Jun 1653. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 16 Jun 1653.

According to Sir Ralph Bigland's pedigree Joseph left 7 children, some living at Bury. Four children of Joseph were baptised at Bury between 1689 and 1698.

- vii. Margaret Warburton. Margaret was born on 7 Mar 1657. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 18 Mar 1657.

Margaret is only known from Sir Ralph Bigland's pedigree, according to which she married a Mr Dikes from Walshall in the parish of Bury, and of West Chester, and they had issue.

Margaret married Dikes.

Third Generation

3. Benjamin Warburton (*John*², *Thomas*¹). Benjamin was born on 2 Jun 1653. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 16 Jun 1653. Benjamin died on 17 Nov 1718. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 18 Nov 1718.

The biography of son John in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography gives Benjamin's date of death as 1710. However the entry on this date refers to Benjamin son of John. The mention of the father implies the death of a child or young person. The death recorded in 1718 is a more realistic entry for Benjamin.

Benjamin's children are deduced from a cluster of births and burial of children of Benjamin between 1681 and 1698.

Sir Ralph Bigland's pedigree shows three sons, John the Somerset Herald, Thomas the second son, and Samuel.

Thomas is given a different wife and family. His wife is Elizabeth Sankey daughter of John Sankey of Sankey Hall, Lancashire, esq. There are three sons, Thomas, John and Samuel, and three daughters, Mary who married Thomas Davies of Newhouse, Hereford and had 4 children, Florella, and Sarah who married Collier of Surrey. As the marriage to Elizabeth Sankey was in Liverpool in 1711, and Sankey Hall is near Warrington, it seems clear that Bigland has identified the wrong marriage.

Samuel is not previously known as a child of Benjamin. He is a timber merchant of St Giles in the Fields, Middlesex where he is buried. He had 3 sons (Samuel one of the executors? to his majesty, Thomas a Captain in Lord Ancram's Dragoons, and John a timber merchant), and only daughter Anne. It is possible Samuel followed his brother John to London, but more evidence would be needed to verify the link.

Benjamin married Mary Buxton. Mary died on 7 Oct 1727. She was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 8 Oct 1727.

Mary is only known from the biography of her son John in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography. Here she was described as the daughter of Michael Buxton of Manchester, a woollen draper. The record of her marriage to Benjamin has not been found. The biography says she died in or before 1732. The burial in 1727 is the only one at Bury which could be her.

They had the following children:

- i. Warburton. Warburton was born in 1681. Warburton died on 23 Apr 1681. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
 - ii. John Warburton (1682-1759)
 - iii. Dorothy Warburton. Dorothy was born on 7 Jan 1684. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 16 Jan 1684. Dorothy died on 13 Mar 1684. She was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 14 Mar 1684.

The burial only refers to a child of Benjamin so it assumed this is Dorothy.

- iv. Thomas Warburton (1685-1765)
 - v. Michael Warburton. Michael was born on 1 Jun 1687. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 9 Jun 1687. Michael died in Bury, Lancashire, on 25 Oct 1699. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 27 Oct 1699.
 - vi. Abigail Warburton. Abigail was born on 1 Jun 1689. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 3 Jun 1689. Abigail died on 6 Sep 1694. She was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 7 Sep 1694.
 - vii. Mary Warburton. Mary was born on 30 May 1694. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 31 May 1694.
 - viii. Benjamin Warburton. Benjamin was born in Elton, Lancashire, on 17 May 1696. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 20 May 1696. Benjamin died in Elton, Lancashire, on 18 Sep 1696. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 20 Sep 1696.
 - ix. Elizabeth Warburton. Elizabeth was born on 25 Mar 1698. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 25 Mar 1698.

Fourth Generation

4. John Warburton (Benjamin³, John², Thomas¹). John was born in Elton, Lancashire, on 26 Feb 1682. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 4 Mar 1682. John died in College of Arms, London, on 11 May 1759. He was buried in London, St Benet, Paul's Wharf, on 17 May 1759.

John seems to have had a colourful life. Benjamin was a yeoman and tenant of Lord Derby, and on Lord Derby's recommendation John was admitted to the excise on February 8th 1706. and served as an excise officer at Ravenglass, Cockermouth, Newcastle upon Tyne, Doncaster, and Hartlepool. This career included one demotion for writing diary entries of surveys he hadn't undertaken.

In 1712 John became a Supervisor at Hexham, and during the Jacobite Rebellion of 1715 he passed information to the government, and assisted the Commissioners investigating forfeited estates. This earned him promotion to Collector at Richmond in Yorkshire. In 1716 he published a map of Northumberland, and left his wife. In 1718 he was demoted to Supervisor at Wakefield for drunkenness, but soon after left the excise and began a map of Yorkshire which was published in 1720.

John was also gaining a reputation as a collector of manuscripts and antiquities. He sold a number of manuscripts to Lord Oxford for 100 guineas. Many of these came from the library of Lord William Howard at Naworth in Cumberland, but it isn't stated how John came by them.

John was made Somerset Herald on June 18th 1720 in recognition of his service in helping to convict Jacobite rebels. By this time he had also been admitted to both The Royal Society and The Society of Antiquaries.

Some time in 1731 or 1732 John married Mary nee Morrison (1698-1778) the widow of William Bury of Blankney, Lincolnshire. They had a son John born in 1732, who married Ann Catherine Mores, and a daughter Amelia (1735-1786) who married John Elphinston, a captain in the Royal Navy who also served in the navy of Catherine the Great of Russia. It was Amelia's descendants who sold the portrait of John back to the College of Arms.

John's life and career was surrounded by notoriety. He was disliked in the College of Arms for soliciting subscribers to his maps by offering to include their arms in the margins without checking their authenticity. He also failed to attend Chapter meetings. By the time of the Coronation of George II he was entitled by length of service, to act as Senior Herald, but was demoted to Junior Herald. He was eventually ejected from both The Royal Society (1757) and The Society of Antiquaries (before 1752).

His collection of over fifty Elizabethan and Jacobean plays was left carelessly in his kitchen where his cook Betsy Baker used them as scrap paper, as fuel for her fire, or to line pie pans. A small number survived, or are known from other sources, but a large number of rare plays were thus lost forever. However he did leave a large collection of books and manuscripts which were sold at auction in 1766. The Duke of Norfolk bought 63 lots and donated them to the college. Many topographical manuscripts finished up in the Lansdowne Collection at the British Museum.

John lived his latter years in the College of Arms where he died on May 11th 1759. He did not receive a good press. According to Francis Grose: "All publications under his name, both books and maps, were done by others hired by him." Stephen Martin Leake states he spent a number of years in Fleet prison for debt.

Thomas Pennant, an eminent traveller, wrote of him: "I knew Warburton well. He was the most illiterate man I ever met. Ignorant of not only the learned and foreign languages, but even of his own. As to drawing he had only the humblest rudiments of it.. Nor was his knowledge greater in surveying... And yet this man had the Art or rather Cunning to pass through life with credit and to be spoken of after his death as a man of learning and ingenuity."

On 1 Oct 1710 when John was 28, he first married Dorothy Gibson in Whitbeck, Cumberland. Dorothy was born in Hutton, Lancashire, in 1664. Dorothy died bef 1731.

Dorothy was the daughter of Andrew Huddleston and Katherine nee Lawson. She was twice widowed, firstly by John Parke of Whitbeck Hall (died 1699) with whom she had at least one child, and then Edmund Gibson (died 1709) of Townend, Whitbeck. She and John separated in 1716.

John second married Mary Bury. Mary was born in 1698. Mary died in 1778.

Mary was the widow of William Bury of Blankney, Lincolnshire, and the daughter of Robert Morrison, a London merchant. The marriage is not on FamilySearch.

They had the following children:

- 6 i. John Warburton (1732-1807)
- ii. Amelia Warburton. Amelia was born in 1735. She was christened in Blankney, Lincolnshire, on 19 Aug 1735. Amelia died in 1786.

John and Amelia settled in Devon and had 2 daughters.

On 23 Oct 1750 when Amelia was 15, she married John Elphinston in Mercers Hall Chapel, Cheapside, London. If this familySearch entry is correct Amelia was 15 when she married. John was born in 1722. John died in 1785.

John was a Royal Naval officer who worked closely with the Russian Navy of Catherine the Great.

5. Thomas Warburton (*Benjamin*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹). Thomas was born in Elton, Lancashire, on 27 Jun 1685. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 1 Jul 1685. Thomas died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 4 Apr 1765. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 6 Apr 1765.

Thomas's baptism record gives his father as Benjamin.

On 3 Feb 1708 when Thomas was 22, he married Margaret Hadock in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Both of the parish. There are several baptisms at Bury, St Mary between 1708 and 1717, with a father named Thomas. Date clashes suggest there were at least 2 families, but it is possible that Elizabeth and Richard were not their only children. Margaret was born in 1685. Margaret died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 7 Sep 1762. She was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 8 Sep 1762.

They had the following children:

- i. Elizabeth Warburton. Elizabeth was born on 4 Dec 1708. She was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 12 Dec 1708.

- 7 ii. Richard Warburton (1717-1797)

Fifth Generation

6. John Warburton (John⁴, Benjamin³, John², Thomas¹). John was born in 1732. He was christened in Blankney, Lincolnshire, on 20 Dec 1732. John died in Dublin, Ireland, on 27 May 1807. He was buried in Dublin, Chapelizod Church, Ireland.

Daughter Jane's baptism, and the burials of John and Jane, are the only records that survive from John's time in Dublin. All other dates and information is from a pedigree by Ralph Bigland. This pedigree describes him as an attorney at law.

"Fragmenta Genealogica," by Frederick Arthur CRISP, London, 1889, at page 247, has this entry:

"Warburton and Mores.

"Indenture made 22 April 1755, between (1) John Warburton, of St Benet's, Paul's Wharf, London, Gent, and Anne Catherine Warburton his wife, late Anne Catherine Mores, and (2) Edward Rowe Mores, of St Peter's, Paul's Wharf, London, Esquire, and Richard Windsor, Citizen and Mercer of London, trustees on behalf of Anne Catherine Warburton, and Joseph Grove, of Richmond, County Surrey, as trustee for John Warburton.

"In consideration of the marriage of John and Anne Catherine Warburton, it is agreed that 1,050 pounds Bank Annuities, part of the portion of the said Anne Catherine, shall remain in the hands of the trustees to the use of the said John and Anne Catherine Warburton and their issue." Curiously this is dated before their marriage is recorded in the parish records.

On 7 Aug 1756 when John was 24, he married Ann Catherine Mores in Camberwell, St Giles, London. Ann Catherine died in Dublin, Ireland, on 24 Sep 1791. She was buried in Dublin, Chapelizod Church, Ireland.

The following was discovered by Chris Pigott in a post on Roots-chat by 'hallmark' dated 13 June 2015. It was taken from the "Journal of the Association for the Preservation of Memorials for the Dead in Ireland," Volume VIII, 1911, under these introductory remarks:

"On a flat slab, lying near the edge of the path at the south side of the church chancel, in a long inscription now almost indecipherable, as it was originally only lightly incised."

Chapelizod Church, Dublin:

Amelia Warburton died at the house of H.V. Jackson, Esq, Mecklenburgh Street, Dublin, shortly before 22 September 1827, aged 67 [Cork Constitution].

- iii. John Warburton. John was born in Fulham, Middlesex, on 8 Jan 1762. John died in Dublin, Ireland, on 8 Feb 1768. He was buried in Dublin, St Mark, Ireland, in 1768.

In 1798 when Sarah was 33, she married Henry Vincent Jackson in Dublin, Ireland. William Betham: [Marriage License for Jackson, Henry Vincent of the City of Dublin, Gent., and Sarah Warburton of the parish of St Peter, Dublin spinster, was granted on May 26th 1798. According to the Chris Jackson Public Tree on Ancestry, Henry and Sarah had 4 sons and 2 daughters. Henry Vincent was born in Dublin, Ireland, abt 1769. Henry Vincent died in Fairy Hill, Bray, Co. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 2 Jun 1717. Richard died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 17 Oct 1797. He was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 20 Oct 1797.

The baptism records of Richard's children all give an abode of Tottington, but it is likely the family lived at Barcleses, Affetside where Richard was born and died, and which is within Tottington Lower End.

On 27 Dec 1743 when Richard was 26, he married Rebecca Magnal in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Rebecca was born in 1725. Rebecca died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 9 Jul 1787. She was buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 11 Jul 1787.

On 6 Nov 1774 when James was 27, he married Ann Turner in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Ann was born in 1743.

They had one child:

- i. Thomas Warburton. Thomas was born in Tottington, Lancashire, on 28 Jun 1775. He was christened in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire, on 28 Jun 1775.

Thomas has not been investigated further. His baptism on his date of birth seems odd, but is recorded thus in the parish register.

There were 330 casualties from a battalion of 1000 men who had marched into a strong line of German machine guns without any artillery support. Private Brooks' body was never found and he is remembered on the Vis-en-Artois memorial to those missing from the "Advance to Victory."

Thomas served as a driver in the Royal Lancashire Artillery. He enlisted in April 1915 and was posted to France in November 1916. In July 1916 he was granted leave, but returned late because his mother was ill. His enlistment papers mentioned his sons James and Ralph. Jame's place of birth was Ramsbottom but it would seem that May moved in with her in-laws at 350 Tottington Road, Elton while Thomas was away.

There is a letter in his file from May asking for information on his as she had not heard from him for a while.

Following the death of his son Ralph of Influenza and Pneumonia on October 28th 1918, aged 2, Thomas was granted leave to UK from November 19th 1918 to December 3rd, and was posted to the Reserve Battery, Woolwich from December 4th. A subsequent truncated note against May says ARP First Aid K. There is also one closed record but this falls between Joyce and Thomas where there is insufficient gap for another child, and there is no registration of a child with mother's maiden name Warburton.

Mays's birth was registered in 2q 1891 Bury 8c 588, mother's maiden name Campbell, sub-district Holcombe (LancashireBMD).

May was the daughter of Benjamin Warburton and Jane nee Campbell of the Bury and Massachusetts clan.

They had the following children:

Frank's birth was registered in 4q 11926 Bury 8c 721, mother's maiden name Warburton, sub-district Elton (LancashireBMD).

He is assigned as a child of Thomas and May because his birth registration references the same sub-district, Elton as his close siblings, and there is a closed record in the 1939 Register, though the closed record would be out of date sequence. He is also shown as the son of Thomas and May on several Public Trees on Ancestry.

One Public Trees also indicates that Frank married twice, firstly to Eileen Kelly in 1948, producing one daughter, and then to Ethel Davies (1932-2006) in 1958. Both marriages were registered at Heywood, Lancashire. The marriage to Ethel produced 6 children, including 4 boys registered at Heywood.
