Newsletter of the Warburton Society

Newsletter Contents October 2022

Editor:

Ray Warburton - ray1warburton@gmail.com
The Warburton Website: <http://warburton.one-name.net>

This document lists the articles that appear in each Newsletter.

Issue 1

- Nonconformists in Hale which includes the annexation of Ringway Chapel, my ancestor's involvement, and impacts on my genealogical research.
- Triangulation which is an explanation of DNA results and their use in Family History.
- Colonel Robert Warburton 1811-63 I had planned the first article to be on Robert's son, also called Robert, but the circumstances of his son's birth are so dramatic in their own right that I decided to focus firstly on his parents, and to save Robert junior for a later issue.

Issue 2

- Who was Bancroft's Mother which explores the facts, and indulges in some speculations about the origins of Bancroft Warburton, the base son of Elizabeth Warburton and John Bancroft who was baptised at Bowdon St Mary in 1738.
- My Phylogenetic Tree which explores the consequences of my DNA matches.
- Rolling Your Own Life This is my first member submission, and I hope it will encourage more of you to come forward. It is the story of Fred Warburton,

Issue 3

- A Confusing Family which describes the problems I had matching a documented history of a family who emigrated to Utah with facts in the historical record.
- DNA Project Status which takes stock of what the DNA Project has achieved, and what it should do next. It includes a request for your feedback so I hope you will oblige.
- Colonel Sir Robert Warburton 1842-99 In Issue 1 I had an article on Colonel Robert Warburton, who, as a gunnery officer, participated in the First Afghan War. This is the story of his son who was born in an Afghan fort during that war before escaping to India with his mother, an Afghan Princess. Robert Junior became famous for his exploits on the North West Frontier where he was the Political Officer in charge of the Khyber Pass.

Issue 4

- A Genealogical Journey which describes how a new DNA match has disproved previous assumptions and resulted in the combination of two clans.
- The Diary of Henry Warburton which is a transcript of the diary Henry kept on a voyage from Australia to England in 1880-1.

Issue 5

- Always Turn the Page is an extract from a book of the same name by David Robinson. The book is about Robinson family history, which includes some Warburton ancestors. The extract concerns those Warburton ancestors who lived in Summerseat, near Bury in Lancashire.

The Button Files

- Who are Sam Warburton's Ancestors

Sam Warburton was captain of the Wales Rugby Union team that reached the semi-finals of the recent Rugby World Cup in New Zealand. The article describes my research into his ancestors.

- From Misfit to Hero is the story of WWII flying ace Wing Commander Adrian Warburton, DSO and bar, DFC and 2 bars, DFC (USA), who was also known as 'mad Warby of Malta'.
- A Tragic Event contains the Warrington Guardian transcripts referred to above.

Issue 6

- The Story of the Poynton Clan The clan I have spent longest developing during in the last six months is the Poynton Clan. It proved to be both bigger, and more interesting than I expected and that is described in this article.
- A Lancashire Clan is this issue's DNA article. Recent DNA results have produced a small group of matches and near matches that caused me to take a closer look at mutation rates, and allele frequencies. This article discusses my findings and conclusions.
- Choppy Warburton and his Little Black Bottle is the story of a 19th century athlete who became an early and successful trainer of cyclists before falling from grace and earning a reputation as the man who introduced drugs into cycling. This article explores his career, and whether his reputation was justified

Issue 7

- The Search for John This is about my search for the John who is recorded as the father of a Josiah Warburton who was baptised at St Mary, the parish church of Bowdon, in 1818.
- The Story of Hale Chapel takes the role of my ancestor Josiah Warburton (1658-1730) in the founding of Hale Chapel as a basis for a discussion of the history of non-conformity in Bowdon parish, the life of Josiah himself, and the recurrence of the name Josiah in subsequent generations of Warburtons.

Issue 8

- Haslingden Notes This article follows my work on the Haslingden parish records and includes my promised notes on sources, and an update on A Confusing Family (Issue 3).
- DNA Developments This article covers developments in two areas, a new Warburton-Dutton DNA link, and a new, cheaper entry level DNA test from Family Tree DNA. It also explores their impact on the Warburton DNA Project.
- New Warburton Website I have recently decided to relocate my website. This article describes why the change is being made, what is similar, what is new, and how it affects Society members, and Friends of the project.
- Button Sahib This is a transcription of the obituary of John Paul Warburton that appeared in The Times in 1919, and which was the inspiration for the title of this Newsletter.

Issue 9

- DNA Indicates Warburtons' Norman Ancestry This is an overview of the material in the subsequent articles which I hope might form the basis for articles that might appear in other Journals.
- My Warburton Theory In order to assess what we might know I have adopted a scientific approach of setting out a theory that best explains the known facts. As new information comes to light this theory may be strengthened, invalidated, or need modification.
- Is Warburton Single Origin? Whilst the name Warburton derives from a single geographical location, a recent article in the Journal of One Name Studies suggests there are too many Warburtons to have been descended from a single first Warburton.
- The Cheshire Group The most significant development is the identification of a matching group of Warburtons and Duttons which appears to descend from Odard de Dutton, and which forms a group within a larger group called The Kings Cluster. The Warburton half of this group is the Cheshire group comprising 10 matched DNA results. This article describes the members of the group, their Dutton match, and the Kings Cluster.

- The Big Y Test and Results Big Y is a new DNA test from Family Tree DNA. Warburton and Dutton results are advancing our knowledge of the Warburton-Dutton group. This article attempts to describe the test and how it is significant.
- The Future This article discusses the implications for the Warburton DNA Project, including the Lancashire group of 5 matched results, and strategies for testing for group membership.

Issue 10

- Was my Great Grandmother a Warburton? This was sent to me by Ann Wills and was the first post that included real story. It recounted her great grandmother's story of her origins.
- Richard III and the False Paternity This is an article on the 2014 discovery of a 'false paternity' following DNA tests on the exhumed body of King Richard III of England..
- John Warburton, Somerset Herald This is a biography of John Warburton, a farmer's son from Elton, near Bury who rose, more by his wits than education, to become Somerset Herald.
- Three Henrys of Haslingden I recently produced a long article on my quest to identify the ancestors of the Henry of Haslingden who married Alice Thredfield and was grandfather of the Joseph Warburton who emigrated to Utah in 1860. He was one of three Henrys who were baptised within 2 years, and married twenty years later.
- Books Information on three books.

Issue 11

- Mary Warburton's Obligation 1719 Ann Cooper asked for my help in deciphering an old document. This article compares my efforts with images of the document.
- Elizabeth Jane's Tapestry Photographs and a story about a tapestry made in 1836.
- Tottington Clan Updated When I investigated the ancestry of John, The Somerset Herald, I realised he belonged to the Tottington Clan. This article explains how.
- Nineteenth Century Social Mobility This is the story of the trial of John Warburton for acting as an apothecary without license, and how he recovered to become a doctor, and the head of a family of doctors.
- The Warburtons of Jamaica There are a number of Afro Caribbean Warburtons from Jamaica. How might this be?

Issue 12

- A Morley Family I have developed a new clan, soon to be published, for a family from Morley, near Wilmslow, following queries from Harold Schofield. This article describes some of the issues that arose.
- Three Unusual Siblings One of my earliest mysteries revolved around an unmatched DNA result from a family descended from a Josiah, normally a name associated with my own clan. It now transpires that Josiah was make believe and we were dealing with an Alice Warburton who had three illegitimate children with three fathers. However Alice is linked to my clan.
- The Origins of the Garryhinch Clan I was prompted to explore the clan's origins further by comments in the biography of PGE (Eliot) Warburton MC. I found an article in The Cheshire and Lancashire Historical Collector dated February 1st 1854 that refuted a number of claims made by contemporary members of the Garryhinch clan. These claims were based on erroneous material in the 2nd edition of Burke's Landed Gentry. I was also able to extend the clan with information from Eliot's biography, and from Gary Merrill. Finally Eliot's daughter Anne, Britain's first female ambassador, died in 2015.

- A Story from Prince Edward Island This story was sent to me by Alan Murray whose forebears worked on the Garryhinch estate and, like a branch of the Warburtons, emigrated to Prince Edward Island.
- An Unusual Painting This is the story of a painting which hangs in Sherborne Lodge, said to be of John Dutton of Dutton. Investigation shows he is Judge Peter Warburton who was involved in the trials of Guy Fawkes, and Sir Walter Raleigh.
- Warburtons and the Industrial Revolution Some insights from Capital and Innovation by Charles Foster. North West England had some specific attributes that made it the engine of the Industrial Revolution.
- DNA Roundup A discussion of recent discoveries and insights from the Warburton DNA Project.
- Three Shorts:
 - The Six Medals I was informed of a pub called The Six Medals in honour of Mad Warby of Malta.
 - Forebears The announcement of a new genealogy portal.
 - New Photos of Henry Hulme Warburton MD of Santa Clara, and his wife Catherine.

Issue 13

- Warburton Family History Day This was held at the Altrincham Conservative Club on Saturday October 18th.
- Harry Warburton (or Brooks) Harry Warburton fought and died in WWI. However his name isn't on the Memorial in his local church. This article explains why.
- Why the Shocklach Clan has become the Tilston Clan Information from Paul Straney in Australia led me to reevaluate the early part of the Shocklach clan with the result that a major part of it became a new Tilston clan. Furthermore a DNA test produced a match with another previously unmatched clan..

- A Family of Clog Makers This story centres on a relationship in Glasgow which produced a daughter, and probably a son but there is no indication of a marriage. What can be deduced from the evidence?
- Bury and Massachusetts Clan This is the clan of Eric Warburton, one of the BigY testers from the Lancashire Group. Eric sent me his family tree a while ago but it has taken me some time to extract the Warburton line, and bring it into line with the style of other clans
- S6881 and The Lancashire Clan This article brings up to date DNA developments relating to the Lancashire Group which has been found to fall into two separate legs a haplotype of the SNPs that lie below SNP S6881.
- The Curious Case of Grave 811 Whilst developing the Ashley and Morley clan I discovered what looks like an instance of grave reuse. Is this really the case?
- Haslingden and Radcliffe Clan Update The story of a whole new line to the Radcliffe part of this clan that was prompted when I received an obituary from a newspaper.
- Other Updates A collection of other updates I've done over the last few months.
- Clan Tree Style Guide I have developed a Style Guide to help anyone who would like to prepare a clan tree for inclusion on the Warburton Website.

Issue 14

- Warburton Day 2017 This is a copy of an article written for a couple of Family History Society magazines that describes the event at Altrincham Conservative Club last October, and announces two events in 2017, one in Altrincham and one in London.

The Button Files

- Highway Robbery in Bowdon This is a story from an old Victorian book that describes a robbery that was suffered by John Warburton, salt carrier, around 1820.
- Two Myths Slain by DNA I watched a YouTube video on Viking DNA which had a couple of interesting implications for Warburtons.
- A Warburton Bible Looking for Home A bible containing several family records is being offered to any close relatives.
- Tottington Manor Halmote Records There are a number of Warburton references in the 16th century records of Tottington Manor which relate to the earliest ancestors of the Edenfield clan. This article announces a new paper (see the Papers page of the website) which explains these references.
- The Dutton Tree by P. H. Lawson This concerns my transcription of this tree, which starts several generations before Odard, and comes down to the 20th century.
- Two New Prospective Houghton Clans I have developed two small new clans in the Houghton area from materials given to me on the Warburton Day.
- Haslingden Clan Extension Another development of material from the Warburton Day.
- Sergeant William Warburton I was sent a photograph of William and it seemed appropriate to show it alongside his story.
- Amelia Warburton (nee Stokes) This is the story of an early Australian immigrant, her two husbands, and (possibly) 19 children.
- Papal Marriage Dispensation I was alerted to a marvellous document that resides in Manchester University Library concerning the marriage of Wise Piers Warburton, the builder of Arley Hall.
- Notes on the Warburton Village Clan Again as a result of inputs from the Warburton Day I have been updating the Warburton Village clan. This article covers a number of issues which arose from those updates.

- Who is Alice Renshaw? Several trees on Ancestry make Alice my 9x great grandmother but I can find no evidence to support this. This article looks at the facts.

Issue 15

- A New SNP Panel for the Lancashire Clan This is designed to uncover more detail on how the clans in the Lancashire Group fit together, but the first tests had limited success.
- SNP Age Estimates I have updated the SNP Age estimates for the Lancashire and Cheshire groups for the first time in a year.
- Where next for DNA? A Roadmap in Light of Developments This article includes some musings on recent DNA developments and how the Warburton DNA Project might proceed in future.
- Warburton Village Clan Update A new DNA result shows that two cousins had non-matching Y-chromosomes. A non paternal event must have occurred between their grandfather, and one of them.
- Warrington Horse Show Thomas Warburton was a supporter of the Warrington Horse Show for many years. He is shown with Lord Daresbury, President of the show, in the 1920s.
- Obituaries and Frustrations This article includes 3 posts concerning obituaries from the Crewe Chronicle sent me by Alan Jenks which resulted in mysteries, updates to the Sandbach and Copenhall clans, and a call for a DNA volunteer.
- Haslingden Update and Two New Families The Haslingden clan has been updated, and the Rotherham and Pheonix families added. This article discusses the changes.

The Button Files

- Doreen Warburton This is the obituary of actress Doreen Warburton from the Sydney Morning Herald.
- Updated Combined Index I have updated the Combined Index to make it a bit easier to search.
- Warburton Days A report on the Warburton Days in London and Altrincham.
- The Warburton Forum Announcing the launch of the new Warburton Forum, a virtual meeting place where anyone can raise and discuss Warburton related topics.
- The Cross in the Heather This is the story of Sergeant Leonard Arthur Warburton of the RAF who was shot down over Belgium and evaded capture, being hidden and returned to England via France and Spain by the real life Secret Army. The cross in the heather marked the grave of his fellow crewe members who did not survive the crash.
- Warburton Artefacts I used a photograph of two Warburton tokens to establish a Forum topic and a Gallery page for the collection and dissemination of pictures and stories of Warburton Artefacts.

Issue 16

- Bruce Warburton Midget Car Racer Daphne Warburton alerted me to this is the story of her late husband Bruce Warburton's career in midget car racing which had a brief heyday in the 1930's.
- Leslie Warburton, Cricketer Profile Colin Warburton sent me this profile of his father Leslie's cricket career. I have since attached them to the Edenfield clan.
- Thomas and Sarah Families A number of lines emanate from children of a Thomas and Sarah, so I produced a paper on the various Thomas and Sarah families in Bury/Bolton at the beginning of the 19th century. It was then updated several times as a results of new information.
- New Year Plans 2018 In the last newsletter I included plans for 2018. I revisit these to see what I actually achieved.
- Clan Updates At the beginning of 2018 I started using a new program that produces Descendant Reports in a new format. All new or updated clans will adopt the new format so this article summarises which have been done.
- The Sublime and the Ridiculous Two Warburton related links were pointed out to me, and are described here.
- Updates to the Bolton (Bakers) Clan Emails from Harold Schofield and Liz Hensor led to two updates to the clan, and a sad story.
- Warburton Potters I have had inputs on the Warburton Potters of Burslem from Audrey Fussell, and Peter Keats, and obtained a book on the New Gate pottery by David Hall. This article summarises what I've learned.
- RSM Alfred Ernest Warburton and his Medals This is the story behind a photo sent to me by Violet Symes.
- Haslingden Parish Records These updates result from my work on the Edenfield clan, and inputs from Stephen Carr
- Early Bury Parish Records My research into the Peters of Edenfield led me to document the Bury St Mary parish records up to 1700.
- Tottington Clan Musings Emails from Richard Tipping and Pam Lofthouse resulted in small clan updates, and musings on the possible connection of a William who features in Always Turn the Page to the clan.
- Edenfield and Related Updates My main focus this year has been on the Edenfield clan. This has included a paper The Edenfield Clan and Related Peters, new listings of parish registers, and a doubling in size of the Edenfield clan.

The Button Files

- John Warburton, Vicar of Oakham I saw John's name on a list of vicars at Oakham Church. I decided to investigate him further, and this is the result.
- Christina Ratcliffe A narrative from Martin Ratcliffe about his aunt Christina Ratcliffe, who had a relationship with Wing Commander Adrian Warburton, aka Mad Warby of Malta, during his time on the island.

Issue 17

- Alan Warburton - Artist In September 2017 I received a letter from Alan Warburton, an artist who lives in the Rhondda, with pictures of murals he has produced around South Wales over the years, Some are shown here. They were held over from Newsletter 16 for reasons of space.
- SM Edward Warburton's Loser's Trophy and Boxing Gloves. Bruce Warburton sent me photos of Sergeant Major Edward Warburton's Loser's Trophy and Boxing Gloves, and the story behind them.
- Tottington Photos Some photos of Tottington Warburtons sent by Janet Holden, and newly connected to the Tottington clan.
