Descendants of Thomas Warburton

First Generation

1. Thomas Warburton.

General Notes: This family is based on information provided by David Warburton.

The closest marriage in time and place is to Ann Walch on 30th March 1823 at Bolton, St Peters. This is 9 weeks before John was baptised. This is confirmed as correct as Ann's maiden name is given on the baptisms of her children which are in the Nonconformist Register RG4-8, and listed on Lancashire Parishes Online.

There is no obvious census record for Thomas, his wife Ann, or children John and Betty in 1841 or 1851. George and Ann are possibly those living with Thomas and Betty Simpson at Turton in 1841.

Thomas married Ann Walsh on 30 Mar 1823 in Bolton, St Peter, Lancashire.

Marriage Notes: Ann's name is spelt Walch in the register.

Children from this marriage were:

- 2 M i. John Warburton was born on 18 Apr 1823 in Holme's, Sharples, Lancashire and was christened on 8 Jun 1823 in Walmsley Presbyterian Chapel, Lancashire.

Second Generation (Children)

3. George Warburton (Thomas<sup>1</sup>) was born on 26 Jan 1826 in Holmes's, Sharples, Lancashire, was christened on 26 Mar 1826 in Walmsley Presbyterian Chapel, Lancashire, and died in 1910 in Bolton, Lancashire aged 84.

General Notes: George's baptism is in the Nonconformist Register RG4-8. His death is probably that registered in 1q 1910 Bolton 8c 272, aged 83.

Noted events in his life were:

- He appeared on the census in 1841 in Turton, Lancashire. George (15) is possibly the George who is living with Thomas and Betty Simpson at (looks like) St Warburton's Houses together with Ann (8) who is the correct age for George's sister.

- He appeared on the census in 1861 in Hindley, Lancashire. George Warbutton (35) is a butcher and ginger beer manufacturer living in Bridge Street with Elizabeth (38) a confectioner, Thomas (14), and Mary Redmeyne (10) a visitor.

6. Thomas Bland Warburton (George<sup>2</sup>, Thomas<sup>1</sup>) was born on 5 Sep 1846 in Lancaster, Lancashire and died in 1924 in Hindley, Lancashire aged 78.

General Notes: Thomas is just Thomas on his birth registration but is sometimes Thomas Bland in censuses. He was born at 34 Bridge Lane, Lancaster. His father's occupation was butcher.

Several of Thomas's children's births were registered as Warbutton, others as Warburton. Of their 12 children, eleven are found in censuses. The 12th is presumed to be Thomas Bland Warburton, who died aged 2 in 1887, on the basis of his name and his registration district on LancashireBMD. In total four had died by the 1911 census. In addition to Thomas Bland, these are assumed to include eldest sons George and Thomas, as both names were reused. George only appears in the 1871 census and there is a death registration with the correct age and place. Similarly Thomas only appears in the 1881 census and there is a probable death registration, although the age is given as 12 when it should be 11. The fourth death is assumed to be Mary Ann as she is only found in the 1891 census and there is a death registration that fits. Of the other eight, six have been found in the 1911 census, but Elizabeth and George have yet to be identified.

Thomas and Lucy have been married 40 years and had 12 children, 8 still living.

Descendants of James Warburton

First Generation

1. James Warburton.

General Notes: This family is based on information provided by Robin Hunt. Robin's tree equates this James with the son of Thomas Warburton and Susan Barnes of Haslingden, who was baptised at Haslingden, St James on January 25th 1769.

However there are a number of Jameses born in Haslingden, Tottington, and Bury between 1755 and 1770 who could be this James, especially as he was already married and widowed before he married Ann, and so could be much older than 23, the age of the son of Thomas and Susan in 1792.

James is a weaver on his marriage record, a carter on John's baptism, and a machine maker, like son John on John's second wedding declaration.

James married Ann Smith on 23 Apr 1792 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Ann was born in 1770 in Bury, Lancashire.

Children from this marriage were:

- 2 M i. James Warburton was born on 8 Jan 1794 and was christened on 16 Feb 1794 in Radcliffe, Stand Unitarian Chapel, Lancashire.

General Notes: James's parents are named James and Ann on his baptism.

- + 3 M ii. John Warburton was born on 27 Jul 1795 in Tottington, Lancashire, was christened on 4 Oct 1795 in Radcliffe, Stand Unitarian Chapel, Lancashire, and died on 18 May 1872 in Mountain Clayton, Bradford, Yorkshire aged 76.

Second Generation (Children)

3. John Warburton (James<sup>1</sup>) was born on 27 Jul 1795 in Tottington, Lancashire, was christened on 4 Oct 1795 in Radcliffe, Stand Unitarian Chapel, Lancashire, and died on 18 May 1872 in Mountain Clayton, Bradford, Yorkshire aged 76.

General Notes: John's parents are named as James and Ann Smith on an IGI pedigree file.

John declared his father to be James, a machine maker, on his second marriage. He also declared his age on that marriage, and on 3 censuses, and it was also stated on his death certificate. If his age was accurate in all cases he was born between 3rd September 1793 and late March 1794. Finally his declared place of birth was Tottington on two censuses.

I can find no on-line record of a John son of James born in this timeframe at Tottington or elsewhere nearby, though this doesn't preclude an unrecorded nonconformist baptism. The nearest is the one documented for him as born 27th July 1795, and baptised on October 4th at Stand Unitarian Chapel, father James Warburton, a carter to Mr Potter. The chapel is which is in Whitefield, part of the Radcliffe parish. As this is a nonconformist baptism it is perhaps understandable that they may need to travel 6 miles to go to the church they want.

Another child, James was baptised in 1794, son of James and Ann, so although John's mother is not named on his baptism she is probably Ann. The chapel's baptism records do not give the parents abode so James and Ann can't be shown to have lived in Tottington.

John's death registration is in 2q 1872 Bradford 9b 138, aged 78. He was described as a mechanic and died of heart disease.

Noted events in his life were:

John's father wanted him to be a lawyer but he was spoilt. He travelled by pony and was a weekly boarder at Roche Abbey School. He stayed at school until he was 18.

When he was first married he was living in Manchester with Walter Rogerson and his family. Daughter Clara was born in a pub. By the time Lizzie was born (1883) they had moved back to Sheffield, and then Rotherham.

John worked for Joseph Peck where people bought clothes 'on-tick' and paid weekly. He was suspected of either taking some money, or not keeping proper accounts. His father Isaac saved him from prison twice. He then worked as a rent and debt collector for Thompson and Wright. In later life he was allowed to go into the office whenever he liked but when he was 80 Mr Thompson came to his house to say he had to leave because he was chasing the girls.

He was 'a bit of a lad'. His wife was besotted by him. He was a gambler, and when his father left him £600 he drank and gambled it away saying "I'm not going to leave it to others to piss against the wall". He had lots of friends when he had money, but they disappeared when the money was gone.

He allowed his children to go about in rags. Daughter Anne was never given any money and had to ask her grandfather Isaac for money to buy boots for the children. He was also a moaner. He rented parts of his house to relations but sold it and turned them out on the street.

He then moved in with daughter Annie who hired a solicitor to witness he was living with her to prevent him taking her goods. He used to go with Annie's husband Frederick Bower to Bakewell Fair in Derbyshire and they always brought a present (a tray, basket or trinket) for Annie.

In the war he refused to go down to the air-raid shelter in the cellar, saying he would "die in his bed".

He died at 22 Oakwood Grove, Rotherham, aged 89, a retired accounts clerk, of cardiac muscle failure, cerebral thrombosis, and senility. The informant was daughter Annie Bower.

She met husband Alf Watt at a theatre where they passed notes. St Stephen's church where they married was almost opposite the St Anne's Road house where she lived. Alf was a tall, thin, mean Scot. He took Clara to Gurock in Scotland to look after his aged parents until they died. He also would send her to the market at the last minute so she could buy cheap vegetables.

Alf was a top grade Civil Servant (in the Inland Revenue) and they went to live in Dorchester, and then Hastings. When he retired aged 45 he took on 2 or 3 private clients. When he died he left Clara their bungalow in Park View, Hastings for life, and a small sum of money administered through a solicitor. He wanted the bulk of his estate to go to his side of the family after her death, and it ultimately went to distant cousins in New Zealand.

Lizzie's mother-in-law didn't allow Lizzie any help with the birth of son Henry who weighed 14lbs. It was believed this triggered her cancer. Lizzie's second husband Sam brought up her children after she died, until they left High School.

Annie would like to have been a dressmaker but her father wouldn't pay the apprentice fee. She and sister Betsey went into service for some farmers in South Mimms, Hertfordshire. They then returned to Rotherham and worked at Horsfalls confectioners and restaurant in the High Street. When Annie was scolded for dropping a dozen diner plates she said, "if you are not satisfied I will go".

Annie later recalled that if you looked up at the ceiling at Horsfalls you could see rats tails hanging down from the many holes in it. It was said that High Street was built on rats, and when a large property was pulled down a swarm of rats ran up Wellgate and then divided, one lot going up Old Hill, and the other up Quarry Hill.

She met Willy Smart who owned a garage and two charabancs, one of which was called "The Gypsy Love". However he was married. He set her up in West Street with a shop and bakery.

When Willy's wife died he married Betty, with a "push" from his sisters and brother-in-law. Betty ran a cafe popular with local businessmen who came in for lunch. She was a good confectioner.

After living in Greasbrough they returned to Oxford Street, Rotherham. When Willy died he left her with a mortgage so she sold up and went to live with her sister Annie. She worked for Dr Coldray, and Elmhurst solicitors.

7. Hiram Warburton (Paul<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in 1806 in Cockton, Yorkshire, was christened on 21 Sep 1806 in Heptonstall, Yorkshire, and died in 1855 aged 49.

General Notes: Hiram's birth place of Cockton on the 1851 census has not been located on modern maps. His death was registered in 3q 1855 Oldham 8d 350.

Noted events in his life were:

- He appeared on the census in 1841 in Prestwich, Lancashire. Hiram (35) is a clogger living in Ironmonger Lane with Martha (30), Hannah (14) a cotton piecer, Mary (8), Paul (6), James, and Alice (ages illegible)

Hiram married Martha Thompson on 4 Feb 1827 in Oldham, St Mary, Lancashire. Martha was born about 1807 in Openshaw, Lancashire and died in 1852 in Oldham, Lancashire aged about 45.

General Notes: Martha is missing from the 1861 census and her youngest children are living with their older married sister so Martha is presumed to have died, but the closest registration is in 4q 1852 Oldham 8d 375, where LancashireBMD records her age as 40 which is 4 years under her census age.

Children from this marriage were:

- 12 F i. Hannah Warburton was born in 1827 in Oldham, Lancashire and was christened on 9 Sep 1837 in Oldham, Hope Independent, Lancashire.

Fourth Generation (Great-Grandchildren)

15. Paul Warburton (Hiram<sup>3</sup>, Paul<sup>2</sup>, John<sup>1</sup>) was born in 1835 in Oldham, Lancashire, was christened on 29 Mar 1835 in Oldham, St Peter, Lancashire, and died in 1895 aged 60.

General Notes: Paul's abode is Lees on his baptism record. His death is probably that registered in 3q 1895 Oldham 8d 497, aged 55 although the age is 5 year too low.

No death registration had been found for his wife Hannah but by 1861 Paul had moved to Glasgow. The only evidence of his relationship with Ann Tait is his presence, with Ann as the parents of daughter Martha on her marriage. Also Ann is using the name Warburton in the 1871 census though they are not living together. It is likely but uncertain that Ann's son Henry was also Paul's son though he reverted to his mother's name Tait after 1871.

Ann Tait originally married Robert Pope in 1859 so it is possible either Ann, Paul or both were married to others during their relationship. After Paul returned to Oldham, Ann had a child by Robert Porter.

Noted events in his life were:

- He appeared on the census in 1861 in Glasgow, Scotland. Paul (26) is a clogmaker lodging at 18 Saltmarket, Clyde.
- He appeared on the census in 1871 in Glasgow, Scotland. Paul (36) is a patient in City House Hospital, Parliamentary Road.

Paul married Hannah Jones on 12 Dec 1853 in Oldham, St Mary, Lancashire. Hannah was born in 1835.

Marriage Notes: Paul was aged 20, father Hiram, Hannah was also 20, father William. The marriage was registered in 4q 1853 Oldham 8d 1008.

Paul next married Ann Tait. Marriage status: common law. Ann was born in 1838 in Glasgow, Scotland and died in 1894 in Glasgow, Scotland aged 56.

General Notes: Ann was the daughter of Robert Tait and Ann nee Welsh. Robert was a soldier and is so described on Ann's marriage to Robert Poper. The family are present on the 1841 census in Halifax where Robert is serving in a Temporary Barracks. Ann, aged 5, is said to be born abroad, but in the 1881 census she was born in England.

By 1851 Ann is back in Glasgow with her widowed mother, though her age is now given as 10, and her place of birth is Ireland. She married Robert Pope in 1859, but reverted to her maiden name soon after, suggesting the marriage was unsuccessful. It is possible it was a Catholic marriage so Ann was not free to remarry until Robert died. Her sons Henry (possibly Paul's), and Robert Porter (son of Robert Porter) were both described as illegitimate. They both used the name Tait.

Noted events in her life were:

- She appeared on the census in 1871 in Glasgow, Scotland. Ann (29) a married washerwoman, Martha (5), and Henry (5 mths) are lodging with John McDonald and his family at 8 Hitherson(?) Street.
- She appeared on the census in 1881 in Glasgow, Scotland. Ann Tait (36?) is a widowed washerwoman born in England living with Martha Tait (16) a domestic servant, Henry Tait (10), Robert Tait (3), and Robert Porter (35) an unmarried lodger who works as a carter.

Children from this marriage were:

22 F i. Martha Warburton was born about 1865 in Glasgow, Scotland.

Martha married James Main on 25 Aug 1882 in Dunn Street, Glasgow, Scotland.

Marriage Notes: Martha is called Martha Warbitten, aged 17, a winder from Dunn Street, Glasgow, parents Paul a clogger, and Ann, formally Tait. She was married at Dunn Street according to the forms of the Free

Descendants of John Warburton

Church of Scotland.

Martha and James had 7 children and were the grandparents of Bill Buchanan

- 23 M ii. Henry Warburton was born on 7 Nov 1870 in Glasgow, Scotland and died on 4 Feb 1904 in Glasgow, Scotland aged 33.

General Notes: Henry Warburton who is 5 months old in the 1871 census was actually born Henry Tait, illegitimate son of Ann Tait, washerwoman, on November 7th 1870. He died on February 4th 1904 aged 33 as Henry Tait.
