The Descendants of Richard Warburton of Dublin

Descendants of Richard Warburton

First Generation

1. Richard Warburton

General Notes: This tree has been compiled from a number of sources, some contradictory. These include:

1. A handwritten tree obtained from the late Virginia Warburton detailing the descendants of George Warburton of Aughrim, of whom her husband, Thomas Egerton Warburton, was one. It is in part based on Burke's Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland for 1852.
2. A tree prepared for James Arthur Warburton of Prince Edward Island, Canada, by Conrad Swan, York Herald of Arms dated 1st July 1976, together with a memoir written by James Arthur.
3. Burke's Colonial Gentry; the entry for Henry Hume Warburton of Vancouver, British Columbia.
4. A tree submitted to www.islandregister.com (the island being Prince Edward Island) by Gary Carroll.
5. The Royal Ark website by Christopher Buyers, specifically the entry for the Durrani dynasty at: <http://www.royalark.net/Afghanistan/warburto.htm>.
6. The Controller of Devils by J D Martineau.

Richard's descendents claimed kinship with the Warburtons of Arley Hall, a link accepted at certain times by the family at Arley. However there is no known documented evidence of this link, and different explanations of it have been suggested. One is that Richard was descended from Peter Warburton, the ancestor of the Warburtons of Hefferston Grange, and his wife Alice Cooper, via Peter Warburton and Magdalen Molten.

However DNA evidence suggests that if there is a link it is not in the male line. Two descendants of Richard, by different sons, have matching haplotype J Y-chromosomes. This has not been found in any other Warburton group. Meanwhile evidence is growing that the Arley Hall family share a haplotype R1b-DF98 DNA profile with several other Warburton clans.

Richard was a merchant in Dublin. He was named in a Chancery Decree on the 8th February 1635 when he lent £8000 to King Charles I.

Richard married Elizabeth L'estrangle.

General Notes: Elizabeth was the daughter of Thomas L'Estrange of Moystown, King's County.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 2 M i. Richard Warburton was born about 1637 and died in Feb 1717 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 80.
- + 3 M ii. George Warburton was born about 1640 and died on 14 Nov 1709 aged about 69.
- 4 M iii. John Warburton was born about 1642.

General Notes: John was of Dublin, and was MP for Belturbet.

Second Generation (Children)

2. Richard Warburton (*Richard*¹) was born about 1637 and died in Feb 1717 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 80.

General Notes: Richard was of Garryhinch, Queens County which was acquired before 1682. He was also granted Kilbrechan and other lands totalling 406 acres in the parish of Fennagh. He received the Barony of Forth, County Carlow, on the 9th October 1682.

He was Clerk of the Council to Henry Cromwell in 1654, and Clerk to the Irish House of Commons 1661; though at the tender age of 17 in 1654, could it be more likely his father held these posts? He was named in the will of his brother-in-law Henry L'Estrange of Moystown, dated 20th Jan 1665. He was High Sherrif of Carlow in 1675, and of King's County in 1691, and MP for Ballyshannon in 1697-9, and 1703-13.

Some sources consider Judith Sandes the mother of Richard's children. However the tree prepared by Conrad Swan, the York Herald of Arms, has a marriage date for Richard and Judith in 1686, after the births of Richard's children.

Descendants of Richard Warburton

Richard married Unknown before 1664.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 5 M i. Richard Warburton was born about 1664 in King's County, Ireland and died in Jan 1715 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 51.
- 6 F ii. Susannah Warburton
Susannah married Henry Warren.
General Notes: Henry was from Grangebegg, County Kildare.
- 7 F iii. Elizabeth Warburton
Elizabeth married Frederick Trench.
General Notes: Frederick was from Garbally, and ancestor to the Earls of Clancarty.
- 8 F iv. Ann Warburton
Ann married John Trench.
General Notes: John was Dean of Raphoe.
- 9 F v. Daughter Warburton
General Notes: Richard had a daughter, name unknown, who married a Mr Nuttall.

Richard next married Judith Sandes in Apr 1686 in Dublin, St Mirhan, Ireland.

Marriage Notes: This marriage date is from the tree prepared by the York Herald at Arms.

General Notes: Judith was the daughter of William Sandes of Dublin

3. George Warburton (*Richard*¹) was born about 1640 and died on 14 Nov 1709 aged about 69.

General Notes: George was of Aughrim and Firmount, MP for Gowran, and Postmaster General for Ireland in 1702.

The tree of George's descendants is based on a handwritten tree provided by the late Virginia Warburton which was in turn based largely on Burke's Landed Gentry of Great Britain and Ireland for 1852.. The tree has few dates so these have and will be added from other sources where possible.

George married Ann L'estrange.

General Notes: Ann was from Moystown.

Children from this marriage were:

- 10 M i. Richard Warburton died in 1746 in Dublin, Ireland.
General Notes: Richard was of Aughrim and Firmount. His will dated 30th July 1744 left his estates to his brother John.
Richard married Ann Castleton.
- + 11 M ii. Rev George Warburton died in 1760.
- + 12 M iii. John Warburton.

Third Generation (Grandchildren)

5. Richard Warburton (*Richard*², *Richard*¹) was born about 1664 in King's County, Ireland and died in Jan 1715 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland aged about 51.

General Notes: Richard was educated at Shinrone by Mr Archibald, and matriculated at Trinity College Dublin on 2nd July 1679, aged 15. He was High Sheriff of King's County in 1701, and MP for Portarlinton 1692-3, 1695-9, 1703-13, and 1713-14.

In his will Richard decreed that if his son Richard had no heirs then George and his heirs should inherit.

Richard married Elizabeth Pigott on 9 Jan 1695.

General Notes: Elizabeth was the daughter of John Pigott of Kilkenny, County Limerick, and Gertrude Southwell.

Children from this marriage were:

- 13 M i. Richard Warburton was born on 6 Dec 1696 and died in Nov 1771 aged 74.

Descendants of Richard Warburton

General Notes: Richard inherited Garryhinch and other estates, but died unmarried leaving his estates to his brother Peter. He was a man of great learning who spent much of his time in London. However, because of the disputes that arose because he ignored his father's will and left Garryhinch to Peter, his memory was not esteemed by the family.

- 14 M ii. John Warburton

General Notes: "Serious Accident" -- Mr. Philip Warburton, son of John Warburton, Esq., J. P., Crinkle House, met with a very serious accident on Wednesday afternoon last, which is very much regretted by the inhabitants, and by none more so than by his friend who accompanied him, the accidental discharge of whose gun was the cause of the injury. Mr. Warburton, had been shooting at Kilmain, near this town, when the gun of his companion by some means went off, and the contents passed through Mr. Warburton's thigh, leaving the femoral artery bare for about three inches. He lies in a precarious state, but in reply to latest enquiries we are enabled to state that he is making favourable progress, which intelligence we are sure will be most gratifying to our readers." (King's County Chronicle, 16 Sep 1846).

"We are happy to state that Mr. Philip Warburton, is recovering from the effects of his late serious accident, and will shortly be able to be removed to Crinkle House." (do, 23 Sep 1846).

Descendants of Richard Warburton

Nov 1810 in Garryhinch, Queen's County, Ireland, died on 21 Feb 1892 in Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada aged 81, and was buried in Foxley River Cemetery, Prince Edward Island.

General Notes: James was of St. Helens, and later Charlottetown, both in Prince Edward Island, Canada, whence he emigrated in 1834. He was MP for St Peter's, and a member of the Island's first Administration in which he held the posts of Provincial Secretary, and Provincial Treasurer.

Three of his first five children are said to have been born on Lot 11, where James acquired 500 acres in 1856 adjacent to 100 acres already owned. His third daughter Martha was also buried there.

Details of the family in Prince Edward Island are taken specifically from a tree prepared for James Arthur Warburton (James's grandson) of Prince Edward Island, Canada, by Conrad Swan, York Herald of Arms dated 1st July 1976, with additional information from a memoir written by James Arthur, and a tree submitted to www.islandregister.com by Gary Carroll. In some instances the sources disagree, in which case the Conrad Swan tree and James Arthur's memoir are taken as the most reliable source.

James married Martha Compton Green on 13 Jul 1837 in St. Helen's, Prince Edward Island, Canada. Martha was born on 23 Feb 1815 in Prince Edward Island, died on 3 Jul 1890 in Milford Cottage, West Royalty, Prince Edward Island, Canada aged 75, and was buried on 25 Jul 1890 in Foxley River Cemetery, Prince Edward Island.

71. Robert Warburton (*Richard*⁶, *John*⁵, *George*⁴, *Richard*³, *Richard*², *Richard*¹) was born on 8 Mar 1812, died on 10 Nov 1863 in Peshawar, India aged 51, and was buried in Taikal Cemetery, Peshawar.

General Notes: Information about Robert and his descendants is taken from various sources including The Royal Ark website entry at: <http://www.royalark.net/Afghanistan/warburto.htm>.

Robert was a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Bengal Artillery. He served in the Afghan campaign of 1839-42. Whilst in Kabul he married Shah Jahan Begum, an Afghan princess, and niece of Dost Mahommed Khan, the Amir of Afghanistan. The Bebum was previously married to Sardar Faiz Talab Khan, who is thought to have fled Kabul with the Amir when the British arrived.

Descendants of Richard Warburton

By the time of the marriage the Begum's son Jan Dad Khan (1840-1919) had already been born and it was assumed he was the son of her first husband, but as the husband probably left Kabul a year earlier, Jan Dad Khan was more likely Robert's son and it is said he recognised him as such in later life. Officially Robert adopted Jan Dad Khan, who became John Paul Warburton.

Robert was taken hostage at Kabul in 1841. The Begum, now pregnant with her second child, fled and was sheltered by her family. During the subsequent invasion of the Army of Retribution, Robert escaped in September 1842, and both he and the Begum were able to make their way back to India.

Robert married Shah Jahan Begum on 27 Oct 1841 in Kabul, Afghanistan. Shah was born about 1813 and died about 1866 aged about 53.

General Notes: The Princess was already married to Sardar Faiz Talab Khan when she met Robert.

Children from this marriage were:

- + 132 M i. John Paul Warburton was born on 28 Aug 1840 in Kabul, Afghanistan and died on 21 Oct 1919 in Kasauli, Punjab aged 79.
- + 133 M ii. Robert Warburton was born on 11 Jul 1842 in Ghilzai Fort, Afghanistan, died on 22 Apr 1899 in Kensington, Middlesex aged 56, and was buried in Brompton Cemetery.

90. Bartholomew Elliot George Warburton (*George*⁶, *Bartholomew Boyd*⁵, *Richard (Rev)*⁴, *George (Rev)*³, *George*², *Richard*¹) was born in 1810 in Tullamore, Offaly, Ireland and died on 4 Jan 1852 at sea (Off Land's End) aged 42.

General Notes: He usually went by his middle name of Elliott. He matriculated at Queens' College, Cambridge on 8 December 1828. 132. John Paul Warburton (*Robert*⁷, *Richard*⁶, *John*⁵, *George*⁴, *Richard*³, *Richard*², *Richard*¹) was born on 28 Aug 1840 in Kabul, Afghanistan and died on 21 Oct 1919 in Kasauli, Punjab aged 79.

General Notes: John Paul was born Jahan Dad Khan and was adopted and renamed by Colonel Robert Warburton when he and his mother fled with him from Kabul. However as his mother's first husband had probably left Kabul a year before his birth it is likely Colonel Robert was his natural father and he is said to have acknowledged a likeness in later life.

John Paul went on to become a renowned detective and Chief of Police in the Punjab and on his death he received a Times Obituary entitled by his nickname of 'Button Sahib'. He received a grant of land in Gujranwala, Punjab, where there is now a town called Warburton. His exploits are described in Controller of Devils by G D Martineau, the son of John Paul's daughter, Selina.

John Paul died of injuries sustained in a fall from his horse.

133. Robert Warburton (*Robert*⁷, *Richard*⁶, *John*⁵, *George*⁴, *Richard*³, *Richard*², *Richard*¹) was born on 11 Jul 1842 in Ghilzai Fort, Afghanistan, died on 22 Apr 1899 in Kensington, Middlesex aged 56, and was buried in Brompton Cemetery.

General Notes: Robert became a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Indian Army in 1887, and Companion of the Star of India in 1890. He became a Knight Commander of the Indian Empire in 1898. He was famous for his exploits on the North-West Frontier, where he was Political Officer, and which he documented in Eighteen Years in the Khyber. His address at the time of his death was 3 Russell Road, Kensington.

His three children are known from The Khyber Rifles by Jules Stewart, though Marie Cecil and her marriage can be deduced from the inclusion of her son James Robert Birch in the Durrani Dynasty on the Royal Ark site. Frank and Hilda were probably born in India. Hilda married into an Irish family.

Robert married Mary Ann Cecil on 29 Aug 1868. Mary was born in 1847 in Powick, Worcestershire.

General Notes: George's birth was registered in 4q 1848 at Barnstable 10 45.

George is missing from censuses between 1861 and 1901, and also from 1911. The four children present in 1901 were all born in New Zealand so he was there at least 18 years. No death or marriage registrations have been found for any of the family suggesting they may have re-emigrated by 1911.

The age of his wife, and the gap in age between Piers and Maud suggests she might be a second wife who married him in New Zealand.

The Rooke papers include 2 documents concerning George Hartoph Eliot Warburton's annuity of 200 charged on the lands of Mount Eliot in Co. Wexford.

His death registration has not been found.

Noted events in his life were:
