PREFACE

This is one of two Utah families with origins in Haslingden from the paper in the LDS archives by Eva Warburton Proctor. It cannot yet be linked back beyond the parents of John, who emigrated to Utah. Also it is not linked to the other family as Eva thought, though there might be a link at Haslingden further back in time.

The tree is based on the writings of Eva Proctor Warburton with input from Margo Duran, Kathy Warburton, and Almon Clegg.

First Generation

1. James Warburton.

This clan is based on input from Margo Duran, which is based on a history by Eva Proctor Warburton. Eva's document conflated two families, one from Haslingden and one from Radcliffe/Pilkington to indicate that 2 emigrants to Utah were half-brothers. Investigation shows these families were separate though it is possible there is an earlier link between the two families.

James is only known from the parish record of his wedding, and his son John's declaration of his parentage. There are no baptisms discovered so far that can be definitely assigned to James and Elizabeth, though see comments on son John.

There is no sign of James or Elizabeth in the censuses so they were possibly dead by 1841.

On 29 Aug 1814 James married Elizabeth Halstead in Haslingden, Lancashire.

According to Eva Proctor, Elizabeth died on 24th September 1827, the same day as her 1 month old daughter Elizabeth. However it was the daughter of James and Sarah of Pilkington who died at that time. There is no evidence of Elizabeth having a daughter, or dying at this time, although she cannot be found in the 1841 or subsequent censuses.

They had one child:

- 2 i. John Warburton (1825-1896)

John informed the Church of LDS sources he was born on 16th June 1823 at Haslingden Grane, parents James W and Elizabeth Alstead. However his grave stone states 1825. The latter date fits most closely with the 1851 census where his birthplace is given as Haslingden, and his age is 26. Actually he would have been 26 shortly after the census in born in 1825.
