PREFACE

The earliest records of this family are from the parish registers of St Mary's, Bury in the mid 17th century, and the writings of John Warburton, yhe Somerset Herald and a member of the clan.

The family were located at Affetside, Tottington by 1717. Ann Cooper of Colorado documented the descendants of Richard Warburton (1717-97). Her tree was greatly extended with input from Christine Richie, as well as my own researches.

First Generation

1. Thomas Warburton.

Thomas of Bank and Walsall, Bury is recorded as the father of John of Bank and Walsall, Bury in a pedigree by Sir Ralph Bigland.

Child:

- 2 i. John Warburton

Second Generation

2. John Warburton (Thomas¹).

No search has been made for other children apart from Benjamin, and James who was baptised at the same time and is presumed to be a twin.

John would appear to be the John who family lore states had a large family and who were royalists. Five of his sons had to flee Lancashire from Cromwell whilst John himself remained hidden in a cave for a considerable time whilst his wife remained home looking after the younger children. This would imply that Benjamin and James were the youngest of a large family especially as the older sons were old enough to have to flee during the Civil War.

This is based on comments from John, the Somerset Herald in investigations into the unfounded claim that John was in fact the son of George Warburton of the Lodge, a second son of the Warburtons of Arley Hall.

John married Holt.

John's wife is recorded as the daughter of John Holt of Hollins Grove and Stubley in various biographies though it was claimed there is no record of a Warburton in the records of the Holts of Stubley. Possibly she is from a lesser branch.

They had the following children:

- i. Robert Warburton. Born on 13 Jul 1647. Christened on 18 Jul 1647 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- ii. Francis Warburton. Born on 19 Jan 1650 in Elton, Lancashire. Christened on 27 Jan 1650 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- iii. Richard Warburton. Born on 17 Mar 1652. Christened on 28 Mar 1652 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Richard died on 11 Jun 1652; he was <1. Buried on 12 Jun 1652 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

The burial record only says a child of John. It is presumed to be Richard as he was recently born.

- 3 iv. Benjamin Warburton (1653-1718)
- v. Joseph Warburton. Born on 2 Jun 1653. Christened on 16 Jun 1653 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

Third Generation

3. Benjamin Warburton (John², Thomas¹). Born on 2 Jun 1653. Christened on 16 Jun 1653 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Benjamin died on 17 Nov 1718; he was 65. Buried on 18 Nov 1718 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

The biography of son John in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography gives Benjamin's date of death as 1710. However the entry on this date refers to Benjamin son of John. The mention of the father implies the death of a child or young person. The death recorded in 1718 is a more realistic entry for Benjamin.

Benjamin married Mary Buxton. Mary died on 7 Oct 1727. Buried on 8 Oct 1727 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

Mary is only known from the biography of her son John in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biography. Here she was described as the daughter of Michael Buxton of Manchester, a woollen draper. The record of her marriage to Benjamin has not been found. The biography says she died in or before 1732. The burial in 1727 is the only one at Bury which could be her.

They had the following children:

- i. Warburton. Born in 1681. Warburton died on 23 Apr 1681; he was <1. Buried in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- 4 ii. John Warburton (1682-1759)
- iii. Dorothy Warburton. Born on 7 Jan 1684. Christened on 16 Jan 1684 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Dorothy died on 13 Mar 1684; she was <1. Buried on 14 Mar 1684 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

The burial only refers to a child of Benjamin so it assumed this is Dorothy.

- 5 iv. Thomas Warburton (1685-1765)
- v. Michael Warburton. Born on 1 Jun 1687. Christened on 9 Jun 1687 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Michael died in Bury, Lancashire, on 25 Oct 1699; he was 12. Buried on 27 Oct 1699 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- vi. Abigail Warburton. Born on 1 Jun 1689. Christened on 3 Jun 1689 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Abigail died on 6 Sep 1694; she was 5. Buried on 7 Sep 1694 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- vii. Mary Warburton. Born on 30 May 1694. Christened on 31 May 1694 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- viii. Benjamin Warburton. Born on 17 May 1696 in Elton, Lancashire. Christened on 20 May 1696 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Benjamin died in Elton, Lancashire, on 18 Sep 1696; he was <1. Buried on 20 Sep 1696 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
- ix. Elizabeth Warburton. Born on 25 Mar 1698. Christened on 25 Mar 1698 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

Fourth Generation

4. John Warburton (*Benjamin*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹). Born on 26 Feb 1682 in Elton, Lancashire. Christened on 4 Mar 1682 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. John died in College of Arms, London, on 11 May 1759; he was 77. Buried on 17 May 1759 in St Benet Paul's Warf, London.

John seems to have had a colourful life. Benjamin was a yeoman and tenant of Lord Derby, and on Lord Derby's recommendation John was admitted to the excise on February 8th 1706. and served as an excise officer at Ravenglass, Cockermouth, Newcastle upon Tyne, Doncaster, and Hartlepool. This career included one demotion for writing diary entries of surveys he hadn't undertaken.

In 1712 John became a Supervisor at Hexham, and during the Jacobite Rebellion of 1715 he passed information to the government, and assisted the Commissioners investigating forfeited estates. This earned him promotion to Collector at Richmond in Yorkshire. In 1716 he published a map of Northumberland, and left his wife. In 1718 he was demoted to Supervisor at Wakefield for drunkenness, but soon after left the excise and began a map of Yorkshire which was published in 1720.

John was also gaining a reputation at a collector of manuscripts and antiquities. He sold a number of manuscripts to Lord Oxford for 100 guineas. Many of these came from the library of Lord William Howard at Naworth in Cumberland, but it isn't stated how John came by them.

John was made Somerset Herald on June 18th 1720 in recognition of his service in helping to convict Jacobite rebels. By this time he had also been admitted to both The Royal Society and The Society of Antiquaries.

Some time in 1731 or 1732 John married Mary nee Morrison (1698-1778) the widow of William Bury of Blankney, Lincolnshire. They had a son John born in 1732, who married Ann Catherine Mores, and a daughter Amelia (1735-1786) who married John Elphinston, a captain in the Royal Navy who also served in the navy of Catherine the Great of Russia. It was Amelia's descendants who sold the portrait of John back to the College of Arms.

John's life and career was surrounded by notoriety. He was disliked in the College of Arms for soliciting subscribers to his maps by offering to include their arms in the margins without checking their authenticity. He also failed to attend Chapter meetings. By the time of the Coronation of George II he was entitled by length of service, to act as Senior Herald, but was demoted to Junior Herald. He was eventually ejected from both The Royal Society (1757) and The Society of Antiquaries (before 1752).

His collection of over fifty Elizabethan and Jacobean plays was left carelessly in his kitchen where his cook Betsy Baker used them as scrap paper, as fuel for her fire, or to line pie pans. A small number survived, or are known from other sources, but a large number of rare plays were thus lost forever. However he did leave a large collection of books and manuscripts which were sold at auction in 1766. The Duke of Norfolk bought 63 lots and donated them to the college. Many topographical manuscripts finished up in the Lansdowne Collection at the British Museum.

John lived his latter years in the College of Arms where he died on May 11th 1759. He did not receive a good press. According to Francis Grose: "All publications under his name, both books and maps, were done by others hired by him." Stephen Martin Leake states he spent a number of years in Fleet prison for debt.

Thomas Pennant, an eminent traveller, wrote of him: "I knew Warburton well. He was the most illiterate man I ever met. Ignorant of not only the learned and foreign languages, but even of his own. As to drawing he had only the humblest rudiments of it.. Nor was his knowledge greater in surveying... And yet this man had the Art or rather Cunning to pass through life with credit and to be spoken of after his death as a man of learning and ingenuity."

On 1 Oct 1710 when John was 28, he first married Dorothy Gibson in Whitbeck, Cumberland. Born in 1664 in Hutton, Lancashire. Dorothy died bef 1731; she was 67.

Dorothy was the daughter of Andrew Huddleston and Katherine nee Lawson. She was twice widowed, firstly by John Parke of Whitbeck Hall (died 1699) with whom she had at least one child, and then Edmund Gibson (died 1709) of Townend, Whitbeck. She and John separated in 1716.

John second married Mary Bury. Born in 1698. Mary died in 1778; she was 80.

Mary was the widow of William Bury of Blankney, Lincolnshire, and the daughter of Robert Morrison, a London merchant. The marriage is not on FamilySearch.

They had the following children:

- 6 i. John Warburton (1732-)
- ii. Amelia Warburton. Born in 1735. Christened on 19 Aug 1735 in Blankney, Lincolnshire. Amelia died in 1786; she was 51.

John and Amelia settled in Devon and had 2 daughters.

On 23 Oct 1750 when Amelia was 15, she married John Elphinston in Mercers Hall Chapel, Cheapside, London. If this familySearch entry is correct Amelia was 15 when she married. Born in 1722. John died in 1785; he was 63.

John was a Royal Naval officer who worked closely with the Russian Navy of Catherine the Great.

5. Thomas Warburton (*Benjamin*³, *John*², *Thomas*¹). Born on 27 Jun 1685 in Elton, Lancashire. Christened on 1 Jul 1685 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Thomas died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 4 Apr 1765; he was 79. Buried on 6 Apr 1765 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

Thomas's baptism record gives his father as Benjemin.

On 3 Feb 1708 when Thomas was 22, he married Margaret Hadock in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Both of the parish. There are several baptisms at Bury, St Mary between 1708 and 1717, with a father named Thomas. Date clashes suggest there were at least 2 families, but it is possible that Elizabeth and Richard were not their only children. Born in 1685. Margaret died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 7 Sep 1762; she was 77. Buried on 8 Sep 1762 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

The baptism records of Richard's children all give an abode of Tottington, but it is likely the family lived at Barcleses, Affetside where Richard was born and died, and which is within Tottington Lower End.

On 27 Dec 1743 when Richard was 26, he married Rebecca Magnal in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Born in 1725. Rebecca died in Barcleses (Bartles), Affetside, Lancashire, on 9 Jul 1787; she was 62. Buried on 11 Jul 1787 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.

It has been suggested that Thomas was in fact the Thomas born to his uncle James. However, given that Richard (presumably his brother) was a witness at his wedding, and he named his own first son Jacob, it is likely Thomas was the son of Jacob.

Thomas is described as a weaver on his younger children's baptisms. He was a widowed hand loom cotton weaver living with his son in Walmersley in the 1851 census, and is probably the Thomas whose death was registered in 4q 1855 Bury 2c 865, aged 79 (Lancashire BMD), though his age should be 80 and Lancashire BMD puts him in Radcliffe sub-district.

On 29 May 1798 when Thomas was 24, he married Leah Leach in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Richard Warburton was a witness. Born on 1 Mar 1780. Christened on 9 Apr 1780 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire. Leah died in 1817; she was 36. Buried on 21 Feb 1817 in Bury, St Mary, Lancashire.
