PREFACE

This clan originates with William Warburton born in Urmston in 1760. The only baptism that fits is William, the son of John Owen, or Warburton. The 'or Warburton is omitted from the Bishop's Transcripts.

This implies John Owen was illegitimate, and he sometimes used his mother's name, and sometimes his father's.

Recent clan details are provided by Andrew Warburton. Andy has DNA results that give his Y-chromosome haplogroup as R-DF98. This is the same as The Cheshire Group, but too distant to indicate if John Owen's father was indeed a Warburton.

First Generation

1. William Warburton. William was born in Urmston, Lancashire, on 16 Mar 1760. He was christened in Flixton, St Michael, Lancashire, on 30 Mar 1760. William died in Urmston, Lancashire, in 1819. He was buried in Flixton, St Michael, Lancashire, on 14 Sep 1819.

William is recorded in the parish register as the son of John Owen or Warburton of Urmston. The 'or Warburton' is omitted from the Bishop's Transcripts. The date fits his age at death of 59 on his burial, and there is no obvious alternative baptism of a William Warburton.

There are two possible explanations as to why John was Owen or Warburton.

The first is that John was illegitimate and these were his mother's and father's names. No record of an illegitimate birth of a John Owen or Warburton has yet been found.

The second is that John's father died young and his mother remarried. The second husband's name may have been used by the whole family for convenience, but when John grew up he began to use his own father's name.

In either case it isn't obvious which name was John's father's. Also it is possible that John Owen's son did not use the Warburton name, and that William's baptism has yet to be discovered.

On 19 Oct 1784 when William was 24, he married Betty Muddiman in Flixton, St Michael, Lancashire. Both were 'of the parish of Flixton'. Betty was born in Flixton, Lancashire, on 6 Feb 1760.
